Furlough for 1 year and 28 days, from 1st November 1916.

Permitted by the Secretary of State to undertake work under the Admiralty while on leave.

And to remain in the service for the duration of the war. He will continue to be granted furlough pay from the 29th November 1917, the day following the date of the expiry of his leave. From the same date and during his service under the Admiralty his absence will not be regarded as consuming any leave that may be at his credit, but it will not count as service for leave or pension. (Dy. C. C. 1468 of 17-18.)

The ministry of Shipping has agreed to pay pension contributions on account of his services for the period for which his services were lent to His Majesty's Government and that such period may accordingly be allowed to count for pension.

(G. I., F. D, 422, C. S. R., dated the 6th May 1919 G. I.—37.)

Secretary of State granted an extension of furlough for 2 years and 2 months from 7th May 1919.

Secretary of State has permitted him to remain in the service of Admiralty for the duration of the war. He will continue to be granted furlough pay from 6th November 1916, the day following the date of the expiry of his original combined leave. From the same date and during his service under the Admiralty his absence will not be regarded as consuming any leave there may be at his credit, but it will not count as service for leave or pension.

(Secretary of State's P. W. No. 3279-16, dated the 5th January 1917, received with C. C.'s No. 1427 G—Estt., dated the 20th March 1917, Dy. C. C.—3030.)

The Ministry of Shipping has agreed to pay pension contributions on account of his services for the period for which his services were lent to His Majesty's Government and that such period may accordingly be allowed to count for pension.

(G. I., F. D., No. 4'2 C. S. R., dated the 6th May 1919—G I.—37).

Furlough for 3 months and privilege leave in advance for 1 month and 7 days from 1st August 1919.
